NHCM New Haven area Student Climate Emergency Contest

PROMPT: Communicate/illustrate how you would like to see action taken on climate change. Contests open to New Haven area youth ages 13-19. All submissions are due by Saturday, April 11, 2020. 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place prizes will be awarded for each contest. You may enter once per contest. Winners will be chosen the following week and work will be used in promotional materials leading up to our Earth Day strike. All entries become property of NHCM. Work must be yours, and by submitting, you are agreeing to all contest rules.

ART CONTEST: Your paper should be 11 inches x 17 inches. Artwork must be 2-D. You can use any medium on your paper - paint, colored pencils, markers, collage, etc. Your piece needs to communicate the prompt clearly (illustrate how you would like to see action taken on climate change) using imagery and words. Send a photo of your piece to newhavenclimatemovement@gmail.com with the subject line "Art Contest Entry". Please include your name, age, school, and pronouns in the email (you may include an optional artist statement). The first-place winner may have their design printed on a t-shirt for Earth day and used in various promotional materials.

TIK-TOK CONTEST: Your video should be 15-60 seconds long and creatively respond to the prompt (how you would like to see action taken on climate change). Use the hashtag #newhavenclimatecontest on your video. Download and send to newhavenclimatemovement@gmail.com with subject line "TikTok Contest Entry". Please include your name, age, school, and pronouns in the email. The first-place winner will have their video featured on our social media platforms.

ESSAY CONTEST: Essays should be in the range of 350-750 words long and clearly respond to the prompt (communicate how you would like to see action taken on climate change). Send the file of your essay to newhavenclimatemovement@gmail.com with the subject line "Essay Contest Entry". Please include your name, age, school, and pronouns in the email. The first-place winner may have their writing used in various promotional materials.
